

MUSEUM VOLUNTEER ORIENTATION AND TRAINING

Thursday, March 16, 2017~6:00 PM

Destin History and Fishing Museum

Do you love history, Destin or fishing? The Destin History & Fishing Museum is looking to add volunteers to help support our growing museum and programming. We will host a volunteer orientation and training event at 6:00pm on Thursday, March 16, 2017. Current volunteers are also encouraged to attend to learn about volunteer needs for the upcoming months.

We are looking for volunteers to help with everything from special events to providing museum tours, and even facilities and repair work. If you have an interest, we can find some way to put you to work!

The training will take approximately 30 minutes. Get all of your questions answered and fill out volunteer paperwork.

Reserve your spot at the orientation now by contacting Tarra:

About the Museum

The mission of the museum is to preserve Destin's history by stimulating interest in and understanding of the village of Destin, its history, and its fishing and tourism industries, through experiences that educate and inspire. The museum includes 5,500 sq. ft. of exhibit space spanning from the early Native American period through the development and growth of the village. Museum volunteers are enrolled in the President's Volunteer Service Award program. Earn hours towards your bronze, silver, and gold award levels.
