

DHFM would like to say Thank you to Volunteer Sue!

Sue has been volunteering at the Museum every Tuesday and due to a new job we will no longer see her here every Tuesday. Sue has been a wonderful addition to the museum family and we are not saying good-bye but Thank you for her dedication. We hope to see her around at special events. Sue is an exemplary addition to the museum family and we appreciate all she has to contribute. Next time you are at a Museum function be sure to say hello to Sue.

From all of us at the Museum-
Thank you Sue.

Museum asks city to proclaim October 1st Captain "Salty" Reddin Brunson Day!

"Captain Salty," was Honored by the Museum and the City on October 1st, 2007. The day's activities began with the reading of the Museum's proclamation by Executive Board President Tim Holcomb M.D. at the Rodeo's first fish weigh in. Then lunch with the community at AJ's, next an open house at American Legion, followed by the reading of the city's proclamation by the mayor, Craig Barker, at city hall and the day culminated with dinner at Harbor Docks.

Congratulations Reddin!
